Application No. 09/707320
Filed: 7 November, 2000
Attorney Docket No. 17685 (PC10408A)

ON PETITION

This is a decision on the petition filed on 1 June, 2004, 2003, to revive the above-identified application under 37 C.F.R. §1.137(b) as abandoned due to unintentional delay.

For the reasons set forth below, the petition under 37 C.F.R. §1.137(b) is DISMISSED.

NOTE:

- (1) Any petition (and fee) for reconsideration of this decision under 37 C.F.R. §1.137(b) (as to unintentional delay) must be submitted within two (2) months from the mail date of this decision. Extensions of time under 37 C.F.R. §1.136(a) are permitted. The reconsideration request should include a cover letter entitled "Renewed Petition under 37 C.F.R. §1.137(b)";
- (2) Thereafter, there will be no further reconsideration of this matter.
- (3) There is no indication that Petitioner herein was ever empowered to prosecute the instant application. Appropriate empowerment should be filed of record.

BACKGROUND

The record reflects that:

- Petitioner failed to reply timely and properly to the final Office action mailed on 24 September, 2002, with a reply due, absent a request and fee for extension of time, on or 24 December, 2002;
- Petitioner filed an after final communication—which was not a proper reply¹ to the final Office action—(with request and fee for extension of time) on 28 March, 2003, over a 24 March Certificate of Mailing;
- the application went abandoned by operation of law after midnight 24 March, 2003;
- the Examiner mailed an Advisory Action on 7 May, 2003;
- the Office mailed a Notice of Abandonment on 20 May, 2003;
- with the instant petition, fee and statement of unintentional delay, Petitioner filed a continuation application cover sheet with fee authorization rather than a Request for Continued Examination (RCE) with fee and submission under 37 C.F.R. §1.114.

Thus, Petitioner has failed to file the reply required under 37 C.F.R. §1.137(b).

STATUTES, REGULATIONS AND ANALYSIS

Congress has authorized the Commissioner to "revive an application if the delay is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner to have been "unavoidable." 35 U.S.C. §133 (1994).²

The regulations at 37 C.F.R. §1.137(a) and (b) set forth the requirements for a petitioner to revive a previously unavoidably or unintentionally, respectively, abandoned application under this congressional grant of authority.

¹ The proper response to the final Office action (see: MPEP 711.03(c)) must be in the form of: (a) an amendment prima facie placing the application in condition for allowance; (b) a Notice of Appeal; or (c) a Continuing Application or Request for Continued Examination (RCE) (with fee and submission) under 37 C.F.R. §1.114.

² 35 U.S.C. §133 provides:
35 U.S.C. §133 Time for prosecuting application.
Upon failure of the applicant to prosecute the application within six months after any action therein, of which notice has been given or mailed to the applicant, or within such shorter time, not less than thirty days, as fixed by the Commissioner in such action, the application shall be regarded as abandoned by the parties thereto, unless it be shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that such delay was unavoidable.

The language of 35 U.S.C. §133 and 37 C.F.R. §1.137(a) is clear, unambiguous, and without qualification: the delay in tendering the reply to the outstanding Office action, as well as filing the first petition seeking revival, must have been unavoidable for the reply now to be accepted on petition.³ Delays in responding properly raise the question whether delays are unavoidable.⁴ Where there is a question whether the delay was unavoidable, Petitioners must meet the burden of establishing that the delay was unavoidable within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. §133 and 37 C.F.R. §1.137(a).⁵

And the Petitioner must be diligent in attending to the matter.⁶ Failure to do so does not constitute the care required under Pratt, and so cannot satisfy the test for diligence and due care. By contrast, unintentional delays are those that do not satisfy the very strict statutory and regulatory requirements of unavoidable delay, and also, by definition, are not intentional.⁷

Petitioner has filed a petition (with fee) and made the statement of unintentional delay, however, Petitioner has failed to file the required reply, as discussed above, and thus failed to satisfy the requirements of 37 C.F.R. §1.137(b).

CONCLUSION

Therefore, the instant petition under 37 C.F.R. §1.137(b) hereby is dismissed.

³ Therefore, by example, an unavoidable delay in the payment of the Filing Fee might occur if a reply is shipped by the US Postal Service, but due to catastrophic accident, the delivery is not made.

⁵ See: In re Application of G, 11 USPQ2d 1378, 1380 (Comm'r Pats. 1989).

⁶ See: Diligence in Filing Petitions to Revive and Petitions to Withdraw the Holding of Abandonment, 1124 Off. Gaz. Pat. Office 33 (March 19, 1991). It was and is Petitioner's burden to exercise diligence in seeking either to have the holding of abandonment withdrawn or the application revived. See 1124 Off. Gaz. Pat. Office supra.

⁷ Therefore, by example, an unintentional delay in the reply might occur if the reply and transmittal form are to be prepared for shipment by the US Postal Service, but other pressing matters distract one's attention and the mail is not timely deposited for shipment.
